FALL HAS ARRIVED!

Nothing punny going on! The newest mural "The Sky Chef" has arrived without falling! Daniel Scordato, whom in the past commissioned Annie Margarita to paint murals, faux paint and embellishments at the Intermezzo Cafe in Tucson, has recently commissioned the above mural.

Tongue in cheek...Chefs have a very hard time juggling ingredients, scheduling and kitchen help, Annie was tasked to incorporate a fun idea into a colorful mural. The mural was based upon Michael Parkes' "The Juggler" with a few changes. And Annie had to use live food models to make them believable in the mural! Yes! The food is delicious!

Annie has had much experience painting in restaurants. When she started as a professional fine artist, she was working at Cafe Tu Tu Tango in Orlando, Florida as a live demonstration artist back in 1996!

She's also painted murals in the Double U Cafe, at Canyon Ranch, La Parrilla Suiza on Ina in Tucson; and the Vail Golf Club Restaurant in Vail, Colorado!

An Artist

" He who works with his hands is a laborer. He who works with his hands, and his head is a craftsman. He who works with his hands, and his head, and his heart, is

Finishes

Annie has over 15 years experience working with decorative finishes.

Faux Finishes

Colorwash

A tried and true style for a natural aged look, Annie's special techniques and ingredients create the highest in quality glazing effects.

Wool Blends

Popular with Clients! Sometimes referred to as "Venetian" Paint. A plaster-like mood is achieved with a cost effective paint technique!

Plasters

Lusterstone/Shimmerstone

Both styles look alike...Annie uses her plastering skills to create smooth and shiny effects, layered with other finishes.

Venetian Plasters

Annie imports the finest Stucco Veneziano for fabulous finishes including burnished and waxed, crackle and aged plasters!
